

● Summersdale New Book Release ●

The only available guide to expatriate finance – packed with expert money-management advice for anybody who lives abroad or is considering doing so.

EXPAT MONEY

The Definitive Personal Finance Manual
for Brits Abroad

by

Hannah Beecham & John O'Mahony

ISBN: 978 1 84024 659 9 Paperback 234 pages £8.99 26th August 2008

Why should all expat-Brits read this book? Money issues may seem like a rather dry subject – but, without getting the money matters organised efficiently, it is very difficult (if not impossible) to live the dream of working or living abroad. Indeed, without financial planning and knowledge, the expat dream can turn into a terrifying nightmare. Even in these times of economic gloom, this book (co-written by a leading expert in the field) will help expats everywhere to avoid the financial pitfalls overseas so that they can enjoy their lives to the full.

As co-author, Hannah Beecham says: “You need to know how to access your money whilst abroad and how to manage your financial affairs to your best possible advantage. Organising a new stream of money transmission facilities, attending to bills in different currencies, and learning the rudiments of a foreign taxation system, may not sound like a bundle of fun. But unless your money follows you (unhindered by expensive exchange rates or impaled on foreign tax liabilities) you won't be having much fun anyway, wherever you may be.”

EXPAT MONEY shows expats how to keep their finger on the financial pulse and to make the most of their money wherever they are and whenever they want. Whether a person is leaving the UK to work, to retire or to buy a second home, they should not leave home without this book! EXPAT MONEY covers everything they need to know to manage their finances including:

- currency exchange ● offshore banking & saving ● offshore mortgages ● ethical investing
- investment opportunities ● insurance & health cover issues ● pensions & retiring abroad
- expatriate non-resident status ● how to deal with the tax authorities – both at home and away

This handy book could help your readers prevent costly mistakes particularly during this difficult period of slowing property markets and talk of a credit-crunch.

Hannah Beecham is one of the most experienced and longest serving journalists and editors in the expatriate finance sector. She was one of the founding members of the Financial Times magazine The International. For eleven years was editor of Expatriate Investor and offshore finance editor of the International Express. Hannah is currently launching the Expatriate Channel, the first online TV channel dedicated exclusively to the worldwide British expatriate community. More information at www.expatriatemoney.blogspot.com

EXPAT MONEY published by Summersdale and available through all good bookshops and internet booksellers or by telephoning Summersdale.

Two articles by Hannah Beecham are available for immediate use by editors:

- Ten Top Tips for Moving Abroad (approx 550 words)
- Five Top Tips for Managing Money Abroad (approx 550 words)

To request a review copy of Expatriate Money, request the use of one of the available articles or to be put in touch with Hannah Beecham please contact Elly Donovan on: 01243 771107 or elly@summersdale.com

summersdale publishers ltd

Press and Media Enquiries: Elly Donovan: elly@summersdale.com

46 West Street, Chichester PO19 1RP

Tel: 01243 771 107 Fax: 01243 786300 www.summersdale.com