Quips and Quotes for the Equine Obsessed

Jane Brook

ISBN: 978 1 84024 785 5 Hardback 208 pages £9.99 September 2009

'There are two things you should avoid approaching from the rear: restaurants and horses.' Evelyn Waugh

'Anyone who is concerned about his dignity would be well advised to keep away from horses.' HRH Prince Phillip, Duke of Edinburgh

The latest addition to the popular WIT series stable, Horsey Wit is the perfect present for eager equestrians, those of a pony persuasion – or those who love to watch the sport of kings.

Providing a rich and varied selection of brilliant quotes and quips to canter through at leisure, you'll be sorry to approach the final furlong.

'A horse is dangerous at both ends and uncomfortable in the middle.' Ian Flemming

'I got a horse for my wife. I thought it was a fair swap.' Bob Monkhouse

'Courage is being scared to death and saddling up anyways.' John Wayne

Media opportunities:

- Gift/stocking filler round ups
- Competition prizes
- Review copies available

'Horses have four bits of luck nailed to their feet. They should be the luckiest animals.' Eddie Izzard
