"No-one writes about cats with more wit, humour and affection"
The People's Friend

"Every so often, there comes along a book – or if you're lucky books – which gladden the heart, cheer the soul ... Just such books are those written by Doreen Tovey" Cat World

When she's not chasing errant donkeys in her best chiffon gown or leaving the teapot in the fridge, Doreen has her hands full looking after her family of Siamese cats.

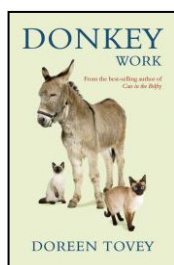

In this instalment of cats and calamities, new feline characters arrive to terrorise the tranquil West Country village of Rowberrow. First comes the timid lilac-point kitten Shantung. After the untimely death of the beloved Saska, a new male influence appears in the bold-as-brass Saphra, who was raised by a parrot and has a penchant for hidden treasure. The terrible twosome are all set to make the cottage a hotbed for mischief once again.

First published in 1995 and brought back into print due to popular demand, this new edition of More Cats in the Belfry offers us another wonderful, touching and funny memoir from the enchanting pen of Doreen Tovey. More Cats in the Belfry is the eighth Doreen Tovey title to be reissued by Summersdale – much to the delight of her thousands of fans (old and new) worldwide.

Author, Doreen Tovey (Oct 1918 – Jan 2008):

Over the years, Doreen Tovey's books gave so much pleasure to so many readers. Full of gentle humour and heart-warming tales, her books described the adventures and antics of the cats (and other animals) with whom she shared her life in Somerset. Doreen Tovey wrote more than a dozen books (which sold more than 150,000 copies in eight countries) and she was also president of the Siamese Cat Club. Her books were serialised in The People's Friend magazine and won her the devotion of many thousands of animal lovers in the UK and overseas.

Notes to Editors: In August 2009, Summersdale Publishers are reissuing Doreen Tovey's More Cats in the Belfry – the eighth Doreen Tovey book to be made available again by Summersdale. The others in the series published by Summersdale are: Cats in the Belfry; Cats in May; The New Boy; Double Trouble, The Coming of Saska, A Comfort of Cats and (most recently) Donkey Work. The books are available through all good bookshops and internet booksellers or directly through Summersdale.
