'Looking fifty is great – if you're sixty'

Joan Rivers

Sixties, the age when you're old enough to know better but still young enough to do worse!

With sassy quips and quotes from outrageous sexagenarians such as Mick Jagger, Virginia Woolf and Benjamin Franklin there will be more than enough for your older readers to sink their teeth into and help keep them living life to the full well into their sixties.

'Age is strictly a case of mind over matter; if you don't mind, it doesn't matter.'

Mark Twain
